

Internationaler Workshop „Models of good practice for care leavers“

Der internationale Workshop mit einem geschlossenen TeilnehmerInnen-Kreis diskutiert im Februar 2013 „Models of good practice for care leavers“, deren Bestandsaufnahme und Diskussion Teil der Dokumentation im Werk- und Handbuch des obigen Projektes „Nach der Erziehungshilfe – Care Leaver in Deutschland“ werden.

German team: Diana Düring, Josef Koch, Dirk Nuesken, Britta Sievers (all IGfH); Stefan Köngeter, Wolfgang Schröer, Severine Thomas, Maren Zeller (all University of Hildesheim)

Chair: Josef Koch / Maren Zeller

Participants (16):

- Bisset, David & Galina, Equilibrium, Bulgaria
- Dima, Gabriela, SCUT Project and Advocacy Organisation for Care Leavers, Romania
- Dixon, Jo, NCAS, Advocacy Organisation, GB England
- Duncalf, Zacharie, Researcher Strathclyde University Glasgow, Care Leaver, Advocacy Work, GB Scotland
- Kneafsey, Brenda, EPIC's Aftercare Advocacy and Support Network, Ireland
- Kusturin, Sunčana, Association Play, Croatia
- Nyman, Linda, Leader of one Child Welfare Service in Oslo & Colleague Norway
- Peters, Eva, Nazorgcoach Niemand Uit Beeld, Eindhoven, The Netherlands
- Racz, Andrea, FICE Hungary und University of Debrecen, Hungary
- Westmann, Hillevi, Psychologist SOS-Children's Village Lapsikylä ry, Helsinki, Finland
- Widmer, Rolf: Internationaler Sozialdienst, TIPITI, Switzerland
- Zilka, Iris, Service Designed for Young People Leaving Residential Care Centres and Foster Families, Who Don't Have Any Family Support, Israel
- Katharina Mangold & Benjamin Strahl, Care Leaver and Higher Education, Practice and Research Project at the University of Hildesheim (in